

30 - 31 OCTOBER 2014

TRAINING COURSE ON CLINICAL TEACHING

University of Brescia
Department of Law
Legal clinic
Via San Faustino 41, Brescia

THURSDAY, 30 OCTOBER

9:00 Registration and opening of the course

9:30 - 11:15 Wallace J. Mlyniec (Georgetown University Law Center): Clinical Pedagogy and Clinical Teaching Methodology. Essential methods and goals of a clinical course

Coffee Break

11:30 - 12:45 Wallace J. Mlyniec (Georgetown University Law Center): Intervention Models - Active Learning, Teaching Techniques and Reflection

Break

14:00-15:45 Paula Galowitz (N.Y.U. School of Law): Lawyering skills: 1. Interviewing a client. The relationship with the client; 2. Developing and Using Facts

Coffee Break

16:00 - 17:45 José García Añón (University of Valencia): Teaching Legal Ethics using Problem based Learning. Part I.

FRIDAY, 31 OCTOBER

9:00 - 10:45 José García Añón (University of Valencia) Teaching Legal Ethics using Problem based Learning. Part II.

Coffee Break

11:00 - 12:45 Paula Galowitz (N.Y.U. School of Law) : Lawyering skills. 3. How to deal with witnesses; 4. Client Narrative and its Role in Representation; Client Counseling

Break

14:00 - 16:30 Wallace J. Mlyniec (Georgetown University Law Center); Paula Galowitz (N.Y.U. School of Law): Direct, Indirect and Adaptive Supervision; Role of the Clinic Supervisor and Giving Feedback Grading and class work.