

UNIVERSITY OF BRESCIA
DEPARTMENT OF LAW

LEGAL CLINIC

30 - 31 October 2014

TRAINING COURSE ON CLINICAL TEACHING

PROGRAM

Thursday, 30 October 2014

9:00 Registration and opening of the course

9:30 - 11:15 Wallace J. Mlyniec (Georgetown University): Clinical Pedagogy and Clinical Teaching Methodology – Essential methods and goals of a clinical course

Coffee Break

11:30 - 12:45 Wallace J. Mlyniec (Georgetown University): Intervention Models - Active Learning, Teaching Techniques and Reflection

Break

14:00 - 15:45 Paula Galowitz (N.Y.U. Law School): Lawyering skills: 1. Interviewing a client. The relationship with the client. 2. Developing and Using Facts

Coffee Break

16:00 - 17:45 José García Añón (University of Valencia) Teaching Legal Ethics using Problem based Learning. Part I.

Friday, 31 October 2014

9:00 - 10:45 José García Añón (University of Valencia) Teaching Legal Ethics using Problem based Learning. Part II.

Coffee Break

11:00 - 12:45 Paula Galowitz (N.Y.U. Law School): Lawyering skills. 3. How to deal with witnesses; 4. Client Narrative and its Role in Representation; Client Counseling.

Break

14:00 - 16:30 Wallace J. Mlyniec (Georgetown University); Paula Galowitz (N.Y.U. Law School): Direct, Indirect and Adaptive Supervision; Role of the Clinic Supervisor and Giving Feedback Grading and class work

Methodology: General sessions and small groups work; simulation; role play Bibliography and materials to be distributed in advance